Section 8 assistance shall be provided to any individual who is enrolled as either a part-time or full-time student at an institution of higher education for the purpose of obtaining a degree, certificate, or other program leading to a recognized educational credential; when the student:

1) is classified a Vulnerable Youth; A student meets HUD's definition of a vulnerable youth when:

The individual is an orphan, in foster care, or a ward of the court or was an orphan, in foster care, or a ward of the court at any time when the individual was 13 years of age or older;

The individual is, or was immediately prior to attaining the age of majority, an emancipated minor or in legal guardianship as determined by a court of competent jurisdiction in the individual's State of legal residence;

The individual has been verified during the school year in which the application is submitted as either an unaccompanied youth who is a homeless child or youth (as such terms are defined in section 725 of the McKinney-Vento Homeless Assistance Act) (42 U.S.C. 11431 et seq.), or as unaccompanied, at risk of homelessness, and self-supporting, by

i) A local educational agency homeless liaison designated pursuant to the McKinney-Vento Homeless Assistance Act;

ii) The director of a program funded under the Runaway and Homeless Youth Act or a designee of the director;

- iv) A financial aid administrator; or

2) The individual is a student for whom a financial aid administrator makes a documented determination of independence by reason of other unusual circumstances. Any financial assistance a student receives (1) under the Higher Education Act of 1965, (2) from private sources, or (3) from an institution of higher education that is in excess of amounts received for tuition and other fees is included in annual income, except:

- 1. If the student is over the age of 23 with dependent children or
 - 2. If the student is living with his or her parents who are receiving section 8 assistance
- Financial assistance that is provided by persons not living in the unit is not part of annual income if the student meets the Department of Education's definition of "vulnerable youth".

If any applicant or existing household member meets the definition of independent student (full-time or part-time) as defined by the U.S. Department of Education, the Owner must determine student's eligibility for Section 8 assistance.

Section 8 assistance cannot be provided to any individual who:

- a.) is enrolled as either a part-time or full-time student at an institution of higher education for the purpose of obtaining a degree, certificate, or other program leading to a recognized educational credential; and
- b.) is under the age of 24 by December 31 of the award year; and
- c.) is not married; and
- d.) is not a veteran of the United States Military; and

- g.) is not living with his or her parents who are receiving Section 8 assistance; and
- h.) is not individually eligible to receive Section 8 assistance or has parents (individually or jointly) who are not income eligible to receive Section 8 assistance.

If an ineligible student is a member of an applicant household or an existing household receiving Section 8 assistance, the assistance will be denied or terminated.

Eligibility for Section 8 assistance for a student independent of parents requires demonstration of independence from parents that will include verification from the student that he or she: a.) is of legal age to contract and b.) review and verify previous address information to determine evidence of a separate household or verifying the student meets the U.S. Department of Education's definition of "independent student" and c.) review of prior year income tax return to verify if a parent or guardian has claimed the student as a dependent, except if the student meets the U.S. Department of Education's definition of "independent student" and d.) obtain written certification by a parent of the amount of financial support that parent provides to the student, or written certification that the parent provides no financial support to the student.

Unless the student is determined independent as described above, the eligibility for Section 8 assistance will be based on both the student and parents being determined income eligible for Section 8 assistance. Both the student's income and parent's income must be separately assessed for income. Additionally, any financial assistance of the student in excess of tuition will be included in annual income for determination of Section 8 eligibility unless the student is over the age of 23 with dependent children.

For Alberta Simmons Plaza, a Section 202 Project Rental Assistance Contract (PRAC), Determining Eligibility of Students for Assistance is as follows:

Protections Under The Violence Against Women Reauthorization Act of 2013 (VAWA)

The Violence Against Women Act (VAWA) provides protections to women or men who are the victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault and/or stalking – collectively referred to as VAWA crimes. An applicant's status as a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking is not a basis for denial of admission, if the applicant otherwise qualifies for assistance or admission.

It is the policy of management to support or assist victims of VAWA crimes and protect victims from being denied housing or from losing their HUD-assisted housing as a consequence of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault or stalking. If you feel you are a victim, you are encouraged to contact management. You are entitled to a Certification of Domestic Violence, Dating Violence, Sexual Assault, or Stalking, form HUD-5382. Waiting List Policy

This site maintains two waiting lists for residency. The first list is for handicapped-accessible units. The Plaza attempts to ensure that accessible units are occupied by persons who will benefit from the handicapped-accessible design features. The second list is for non-accessible units.

When no mobility-impaired persons are on the waiting list for accessible units, families will be admitted to a handicapped-accessible unit that becomes available. In general, one's place on the waiting list is determined by the date and time on which all application materials are received at the Alberta Simmons Plaza office; however, acceptance to the waiting list does not automatically guarantee eligibility for an apartment. Apartments are rented to eligible persons in the order of receipt; however, occupancy standards and preferential treatment are applied to certain persons who meet one or more of the criteria set forth below.

Preferences are applied only after a determination of initial eligibility under the applicable admissions criteria.

An offer of an apartment will be made by telephone and, if necessary, by letter. A person offered an apartment has three (3) days from receipt of the phone call or, if notified by letter, seven (7) days from the date of mailing to notify the office of their intention to accept or reject the offered apartment. Any deviation from this time-frame must be approved in writing by Administration.

Wait list closure: The owner reserves the right to close the wait list when the owner's estimate the wait time exceeds sixty (60) months. If the owner closes the wait list, the owner will inform potential applicants that the waiting list is closed, will refuse to accept additional applications, and will publish a notice to that effect in the most prominent publication serving local seniors.

The owner would reopen the list when placement estimates fall below thirty-six (36) months. The owner will inform potential applicants the waiting list is open by publishing a notice to that effect in the same prominent publication serving local seniors as when they closed the list. The notice will include information of where and when to apply, rules for applying, and the order in which applications will be processed.

Any eligible person who refuses an apartment will not lose his or her place on the waiting list.

Preferences

- 1.) Mobility-impaired persons who meet the definition of "handicapped" who already reside at Alberta Simmons Plaza and who do not have a unit designed for handicapped occupants receive preference over non-resident applicants for such units
- 2.) Mobility-impaired persons who meet the definition of "handicapped" receive preference for units designed for handicapped occupants.
- 3.) Very-low income eligible persons per HUD guidelines receive preference;
- 4.) Unit Transfers (see Unit Transfers next section).

Preferences can be cumulative and will supersede date and time placement on the wait list.

Unit Transfers

We allow for unit transfers for the following reasons:

- 1.) As a reasonable accommodation (See Reasonable Accommodation below). This request should be issued in writing. If you are unable to provide the request in writing, please notify management for assistance as possible.
- 2.) As an accommodation to an individual needing the benefit of an accessible unit designed for handicap/disability, a non-disabled person occupying that unit will sign an acknowledgement upon move-in and will be required to transfer to the next available unit should another resident or applicant request that accommodation.
- 3.) As a reasonable accommodation for an individual with a medical reason for a transfer (See Reasonable Accommodation below).
- 4.) The resident has requested and qualifies for a VAWA Emergency Transfer.

Tenants awaiting a transfer for any of the reasons above will be given priority above all applicants currently on the waiting list for the first unit to come available that will meet their request.

Reasonable accommodation requests must demonstrate: a.) an identifiable relationship, or nexus, between the requested accommodation and the individual's disability and b.) a benefit to the applicant to participate in the program, live in a dwelling, or to take advantage of the program services. Also it must not present an undue financial and/or administrative burden nor result in a fundamental alteration of the nature of the program.

Upon approval of a transfer request, those individuals in residence shall be given a preference to the next applicable available unit over non-resident applicants and in applicable chronological order with other residents requesting the same reasonable accommodations.

Reasonable Accommodations

A Reasonable Accommodation is a change, exception, or adjustment to a program, service, building, dwelling unit, or workplace that will allow a person with disability to participate in the program, to live in a dwelling unit, to take advantage of the program services, or to perform a job.

A Reasonable Accommodation request should be issued in writing. If you are unable to provide the request in writing, please notify management for assistance as possible.

A reasonable accommodation request must demonstrate: a.) a identifiable relationship, or nexus, between the requested accommodation and the individual's disability and b.) a benefit to the applicant to participate in the program, live in a dwelling, or to take advantage of the program services. Management does not provide reasonable accommodations when the request is a matter of convenience or preference only.

Management may reject a Reasonable Accommodation request if it presents an undue financial and/or administrative burden or results in a fundamental alteration of the nature of the program. Management reserves the right to propose alternative accommodations based upon availability.

We maintain a Reasonable Accommodation Policy. We will be happy to supply a copy upon request.

Electronic Income Verification (EIV) Screening

HUD provides the owner/agent with information about an applicant's current status as a HUD housing assistance recipient. The owner/agent will use the Enterprise Income Verification System (EIV) Existing Tenant Report to determine if the applicant or any member of the applicant household is currently receiving HUD assistance. Nothing prohibits a HUD housing assistance recipient from applying to this property. The applicant must move out of the current property and/or forfeit any voucher before HUD assistance on this property will begin.

If the applicant or any member of the applicant household fails to fully and accurately disclose rental history, the application may be denied based on the applicant's "misrepresentation" of information.

This information will be reviewed on an annual basis, at each annual certification. If any household member receives or attempts to receive assistance in another HUD assisted unit while receiving assistance on this property, the household member will be required to reimburse HUD for assistance paid in error. This is considered a material lease violation and may result in penalties up to and including eviction and pursuit of fraud charges.

The owner/agent will also review EIV Income Reports no more than 90 days after move in certifications are submitted to TRACS.

Social Security Number (SSN) Requirements

Effective January 31, 2010, all household members must provide:

1. The complete and accurate SSN assigned to each member of the applicant's household and
2. Documentation necessary to prove that the Social Security Number is accurate (verification)

For eligibility purposes, the requirement to disclose a Social Security Number is waived if no Social Security Number has been assigned and:

- A household member is 62 or older as of January 31, 2010 and eligibility determination started before January 31, 2010
- A household member is an ineligible non-citizen. This household member does not qualify for assistance therefore household assistance will be prorated.
- A child under the age of 6 years added to the applicant household within the 6-month period prior to the household's date of admission. The household will have a maximum of 90-days after the date of admission to provide the Social Security Number and adequate documentation that the Social Security Number is valid. An additional 90 days may be granted under certain circumstances. If the household does not provide the Social Security Number and adequate documentation to verify the Social Security Number within the prescribed timeframe, HUD requires that the owner/agent terminate tenancy.

Failure to provide a Social Security Number at application will not preclude placement to the waiting list provided all other wait list review items can be completed. If offered a unit, non-exempt applicants must provide a SSN to proceed. Applicants not providing a SSN at that time will have 90 days to provide a SSN or they will be removed from the wait list. Residency cannot be obtained by non-exempt applicants without providing a SSN.

The owner/agent must deny and/or terminate HUD assistance, in accordance with the provisions governing the program, if the assistance applicant does not meet the applicable SSN disclosure, documentation, and verification requirements.

The Social Security Number provided will be compared to the information recorded in the Social Security Administration database (through HUD's Enterprise Income Verification (EIV) System) to ensure that the Social Security Number, birth date and last name match. If EIV returns an error that cannot be explained or resolved, assistance and/or tenancy may be terminated and any assistance paid in error must be returned to HUD.

If the applicant/resident deliberately provides an inaccurate Social Security Number, the owner/agent and/or HUD may pursue additional penalties due to attempted fraud.

ASSH complies with Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, Title VIII of the Civil Rights Act of 1968 as amended by the Community Development Act of 1974 and the Fair Housing Amendments Act of 1988, Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, the Age Discrimination Act of 1975, and the Americans with Disabilities Act. ASSH will further comply with any subsequently enacted legislation and implementing rules and regulations protecting the residents, applicants and/or staff.

Section 504 stipulates that “no otherwise qualified individual with handicaps in the United States...shall, solely by reason of his/her handicap, be excluded from the participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be subjected to discrimination under any program or activity receiving Federal financial assistance...”. The Fair Housing Amendments Act regulations state “It shall be unlawful for any person to refuse to make reasonable accommodations in rules, policies, practices, or services, when such accommodations may be necessary to afford a handicapped person equal opportunity to use and enjoy a dwelling unit, including public and private areas.”

The requirement to provide reasonable accommodation is intended to provide persons with disabilities equal opportunity to participate in housing programs through modification of policies, procedures, or structures. The policy is not intended to provide greater program benefits to persons with disabilities than to non-disabled persons. However, it may at times mean that persons with disabilities will be treated differently in order to ensure equal access to the programs and services.

ASSH is committed to providing reasonable accommodations to qualified persons with disabilities so that the choice of living arrangements is, as a whole, available and comparable to other persons eligible for assistance under the same program. ASSH will work with applicants and residents to make a reasonable accommodation, giving priority to those methods that offer programs and activities to otherwise qualified individuals with disabilities in the most appropriate integrated setting. Reasonable accommodation does/will not cause undue burden(s) or cause fundamental alterations in the nature of the housing program.

If you feel you need a reasonable accommodation, please inquire at the Manor office for a copy of the policy. If you need assistance/accommodation in reviewing the policy, staff will be happy to assist you at that time.
